

Introducing the My CWA lending library

A brand new community resource for anyone working with adults and children affected by domestic abuse.

Giving you the skills and confidence to make the community a healthier place.

a library with a difference

We've put together a comprehensive collection of titles for you to consult, borrow, return and renew. They include social stories, therapeutic stories, practical resources and self-help tools.

You'll also get practical support and guidance for using the resources from My CWA specialists - so we'll be with you every step of the way.
